MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

25X1

SUBJECT: Debriefing of [Redacted]

1. On 18 April 1956 the Subject, employee assigned to the Office of Communications, Project AQUATONE, was security debriefed by the undersigned. This debriefing was occasioned by Subject's resignation from CIA scheduled for 19 April 1956. The reason for his resignation has officially been accepted "to seek employment in private industry."

2. [Redacted] was informed that his separation from CIA and particularly Project AQUATONE, does not in any way release him of the obligation to safeguard all information previously furnished him, i.e., Project existence, its mission, equipment and capabilities. He was further instructed that should the Project receive any publicity in future newspaper articles or on radio and TV he should not, in any way, display personal knowledge concerning detailed Project activities. He stated he thoroughly understood his personal responsibilities insofar as the Project was concerned and assured the writer that all matters of confidence previously entrusted with him would never become a matter of personal violation.

4. When queried as to his future plans for employment, Subject stated he intended to accept one of two offers, one with RCA the other with Bendix radio. Subject did not list an address for future contact purposes since he did not know what area of the country he would be claiming as his future residence. It is suggested that contact with him be made through his last known permanent address should the need arise for such contact.
